Health care bust

Congress has again failed at repealing and replacing the Obama Care. The best options for the Washington lawmakers is to amend and enhance the current healthcare system and forget about the urge to repeal and replace because it does not work. Click here fore more....

Lions heartbreak

The Lions lost the game in the last eight seconds in Detroit Sunday after a great play.

It was tough to see the team lose, but the rules are the rules and now we move on. The Lions played well against one of the best teams in the NFL. They did not win, but they should be proud of their performance. Let's keep the same level of play.

Divided we kneel

Several NFL teams knelt during the national anthem this weekend, protesting social injustice in America after President Trump told NFL owners to fire players who kneel during the recitation of the anthem. The standoff with the president has morphed into a freedom of speech issue and away from its original target, which is police brutality. We call on the president to unite the nation against social injustice and we remind him that it becomes mandatory, it is not freedom.

travel ban update

Trump immigration policies are like a bad cold; they never go away, and no one at the White House seems to want to learn from their mistakes. The president announced new restrictions on immigrants from several countries. How does the ban affect me?
